

Moya >

Yesterday 18:46

Paula,
Am just back in the U.K.

What I have learned from inquiry / Parliamentary committee ..questions is very damaging.

Nick was a poor witness.
Chairman gone. He will be next.

When it was clear the system was at fault, the PO should have raised a red flag, stopped all proceedings, given people back their money and then tried to compensate them for the ruin this caused in their lives.
M

Yesterday 20:41

Yes I agree. This has/ is taking too long Moya. The toll on everyone

iMessage

Moya &gt;

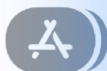

Yesterday 20:41

Yes I agree. This has/ is taking too long Moya. The toll on everyone affected is dreadful.
I hope you had a good break and are well.
BW Paula

I don't know what to say.
I think you knew..
m

No Moya, that isn't the case.

I want to believe you.
I asked you twice. I suggested you get an independent review reporting to you. I was afraid you were being lied to.
You said system had already been reviewed multiple times.
How could you not have known?

iMessage

Moya >

[Redacted incoming message]

Moya, the mechanism for getting to the bottom of this is the Inquiry. I've made it my priority to support it fully.

Delivered

The Post Office did not.. they dragged their heels,, they did not deliver docs, they did not compensate people . Paula.. you appealed the Judges decision!

I am sorry.. I can't now support you

I have supported you All these years.. to my own detriment. I can't support you now After what I have learned M

iMessage

